Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

The frame farmhouse is a two-story, three-bay by two-bay structure on a concrete block foundation. It is covered in a modern aluminum siding. It is an L-shaped house with a small one-story shed roof addition on the rear of the ell. A notable feature of the house is its modern exterior-end stone chimney and an ornamental wood hood over the front door. The house appears to have been constructed in the early 20th century.

The frame farmhouse is located on the east side of Rt. 65, .3 mile south of Poffenberger Road. It is located on a level stretch of land at a curve in the road.

The main facade has a central entrance with a arched hood supported on boxed posts. One-over-one sash windows are in the other two bays on the first story and the three bays on the second story. On the northern gable end is a large stone chimney. The rear ell has a three-section window on the northern side.

There is an early 20th century barn on the property.
